

Yield Book Boost

Critical analytics delivered faster

Yield Book® Boost offers more calculations in less time. By accelerating calculation speed, it allows time-sensitive projects to be completed quickly and deadlines to be met.

Moreover, it reduces variable usage charges by offering an allowance of 4,000 extra CPU minutes each month, for every Yield Book Boost license bought, to accommodate calculation-intensive jobs.

Your requirement	Our solution
Meet time-sensitive deadlines	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Reduce the time needed for calculations; run analytics for holdings faster including pricing and risk measures, return attribution, scenario analysis, tracking error, Value at Risk and cash flow analysis.</li> </ul>
Manage large jobs easily and cost effectively	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>Avoid having to modify Yield Book processes, synchronize data across multiple licenses, manually distribute the workload and piece together the results in one output; streamline your processing through a single Yield Book license.</li> </ul>

Yield Book Boost functionality

- Speed: By sending calculations to multiple servers, Yield Book Boost expedites the production of derived analytics.
- Flexibility: Yield Book Boost works for on-demand, overnight batch, and interactive calculations.
- Adaptability: Yield Book Boost can be dynamically attached to any license or calculation task where additional computational power is needed.
